CONTENTS.—NO. I.

PART I.—ORIGINAL COMMUNICATIONS.

PAGE

ART. I.—Extracts from the Minutes of the New York Medical and Surgical Society, for the year 1858. Reported by T. GAILLARD THOMAS, M.D., ... 9

ART. II.—An Account of some Cases in Surgical Practice. By C. E. ISAACS, M.D., one of the Surgeons of the Brooklyn City Hospital, Consulting Surgeon to the Kings County Hospital, etc. etc., ... 32

ART. III.—Hip-joint Disease.—A Clinical Lecture delivered at the Long Island College Hospital of Brooklyn. By LOUIS BAUER, M.D., M.R.C.S. (England), Surgeon to the Hospital, etc. etc. etc., ... 39

ART. IV.—Post-mortem Appearances in Cholera Infantum, with Cases. By J. LEWIS SMITH, M.D., late physician to the North-western Dispensary, New York, ... 61

ART. V.—Extirpation of the Eye. By C. R. AGNEW, M.D., Surgeon to the New York Eye Infirmary, ... 67

ART. VI.—Aneurism of the Femoral Artery, following a Popliteal Aneurism, cured by eight hours' mechanical compression. By E. J. FOUNTAIN, M.D., ... 75

ART. VII.—Report of the Proceedings of the Medical Societies and of the Practice of the Hospitals in New York; prepared for the NEW YORK JOURNAL OF MEDICINE. By GEORGE F. SHRADY, M.D., Resident Surgeon to the New York Hospital, . 83

PART II.—CRITICAL ANALYSIS.

ART. VIII.—Critical Examination of all the recent Works relating to Infantile Pathology and Therapeutics; prepared for the NEW YORK JOURNAL OF MEDICINE. By A. JACOBI, M.D., Physician to the Children's Department of the (Canal street) German Dispensary of the city of New York, ... 108

W. H. TINSON, PRINTER, N. Y.